We've invited Doug here for a Pro Workshop Weekend July 31 - August 1. He will be teaching the Friday night workshop (no beginner class that night!), 3 workshops on Saturday and topping it off with a West Meets East Dance Saturday night!

Doug has been a HUGE supporter of the St Louis dance community and is in constant demand all over the U.S. He combines his experience with showmanship and packs in FUN - you will learn both technique and patterns in his workshops and will have fun at the same time - you won't want to miss out on this weekend!
